TEDC 2023 COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AWARD

APPLICATIONS DUE ON OR BEFORE AUGUST 25, 2023

PURPOSE

The TEDC Awards Committee, through its Community Economic Development Awards Program, recognizes exceptional contributions of Texas communities in the following efforts: Business Retention, Business Expansion, Business Recruitment or Community Involvement.

Applicants are grouped according to population and evaluated among other similarly-sized communities.

ELIGIBILITY

- Awards are presented annually to Texas communities whose projects or programs have been completed during the past 12 months ending May 31st of the award year. For a project to be considered for the 2023 awards competition, ground-breaking or the equivalency such as a signed lease (e.g) must occur between June 1, 2022 and May 31, 2023. An announcement of a project is not sufficient.
- A nominating Community must have at least one TEDC member. If not a current member of TEDC, a membership application is available at www.texasedc.org. Your TEDC membership application may be submitted with your CEDA application.
- The project being submitted for a 2023 CEDA may not have been nominated for a CEDA in a previous year. Only one CEDA application per organization is permitted.

NOMINATION

CEDA applications may be submitted individually by a community, or through a regional utility or other regional economic development organization of the TEDC. Applications must be limited to four (4) conventionally formatted 8.5" x 11" pages. If more than four (4) 8.5" x 11" pages are submitted, only the first four (4) pages will be considered for the application. Please also submit up to five (5) digital photographs of the project along with the application form to amy@texasedc.org. The photographs should be submitted as separate jpeg digital files and are not to be embedded in a pdf file. The photographs will be used for the award ceremony only and will not be considered as part of the evaluation of the application. Multiple entries per community are only permitted if the entries are submitted by separate entities.

JUDGING

The TEDC's CEDA Committee, representing economic development leaders from around the State, will determine and recommend finalists for the CEDA Awards.

TEDC CEDA AWARDS CRITERIA

The awards will be judged on the following criteria:

I. INNOVATIVENESS

The program or project demonstrates innovative approaches to institutional, financial, technical or legal aspects of economic development.

II. TRANSFERABILITY

The program or project shows potential use by other economic development agencies or practitioners for similar opportunities or solutions.

The program or project should be readily transferable to comparable situations in other communities.

III. COMMUNITY COMMITMENT AND LEVERAGE

The program or project makes it possible for others to achieve a greater impact by joining public/private participation or by intergovernmental or state/local involvement to leverage resources.

Examples of this participation may include:

- tax abatements
- tax increment financing
- creative financing
- freeport exemptions
- enterprise zones
- public improvement districts and the economic development sales tax

IV. MEASURED OBJECTIVES

Results demonstrate a specific objective that the program or project was able to achieve.

Measures of the program's value can include:

- jobs created
- jobs retained or improved
- additional monetary investment in the community
- additions to the tax base created by the program or project

V. SECONDARY BENEFITS

Produces ancillary benefits to other economic activities in the area.
