

Coronavirus (COVID-19): Small Business Loan Information

SBA is coordinating with Texas Department of Emergency Management and is processing Texas' SBA Disaster Request for the State of Texas. Once the SBA declaration for Texas is finalized at disasterloan.sba.gov/Declarations, we are directing all businesses that have significant economic injury to <https://disasterloan.sba.gov/ela/> to begin the registration and application process for Economic Injury Disaster Loans. The SBA Texas Declaration will be posted once it is finalized, allowing businesses to complete their loan application.

Any such EIDL assistance declaration issued by the SBA makes loans available to small businesses and private, non-profit organizations in designated areas of a state or territory to help alleviate economic injury caused by the COVID-19. These loans can provide vital economic support to small businesses to help overcome the temporary loss of revenue they are experiencing.

SBA's Economic Injury Disaster Loans are just one piece of the expanded focus of the federal government's coordinated response, and the SBA is strongly committed to providing the most effective and customer-focused response possible. We will continue to assist small businesses through our District Office and Resource Partners, including: Small Business Development Centers, SCORE Mentors, and the WBEA Women's Business Center.

Join the SBA Houston District Office as we provide the latest information from SBA to help small businesses with their economic recovery from the effects of the Coronavirus. We will give information on how to apply and where you can get additional help with preparing and applying for an SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loan.

The information presented on all calls will be the same.
Please join at the date and time best for you.
