CODE OF ETHICS

The following code of ethics was established by the professional economic developers in the International Economic Development Council to ensure a high ethical standard for those involved in economic development.

PROFESSIONAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPERS SHALL:

1. Carry out their responsibilities in a manner to bring respect to the profession, the economic developer and the economic developer's constituencies.
2. Practice with integrity, honesty, and adherence to the trust placed in them both in fact and in appearance.
3. Hold themselves free of any interest, influence, or relationship in respect to any professional activity when dealing with clients which could impair professional judgement or objectivity or which in the reasonable view of the observer, has that effect.
4. Be mindful that they are representatives of the community and shall represent the overall community interest.
5. Keep the community, elected officials, boards and other stakeholders informed about the progress and efforts of the area's economic development program.
6. Maintain in confidence the affairs of any client, colleague or organization and shall not disclose confidential information obtained in the course of professional activities.
7. Openly share information with the governing body according to protocols established by that body. Such protocols shall be disclosed to clients and the public.
8. Cooperate with peers to the betterment of economic development technique, ability, and practice, and to strive to perfect themselves in their professional abilities through training and educational opportunities.
9. Assure that all economic development activities are conducted with equality of opportunity for all segments of the community without regard to race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, political affiliation, disability, age, marital status, or socioeconomic status.
10. Abide by the principles established in this code and comply with the rules of professional conduct as promulgated by IEDC.

There may be circumstances where the board may choose to interpret and apply this code to a particular event such as a man-made or natural disaster.
